Approval of Minutes

A motion by Kopf and supported by Vollmer to approve the minutes of the February 2, 2016 Regular meeting, with changes; unanimously approved.

Old Business:

- Park and Harbor Rules- Discussion:
Kopf read off his suggested amendments to the Park & Harbor Rules. Commissioners discussed the rules but made no other changes at this time. Commissioners also discussed the possibility of hiring a Park Director to oversee the Park & Harbor during the season. Commissioners discussed the possibility of parking in the right lane of Lake Shore Rd. during large parties/picnics at the park on weekends. Brett Smith is to get a price quote to cover the north overflow lot near City Hall with gravel until funds are available to pave the area.

New Business:

- Vollmer stated he feels that non-resident boaters should be allowed to use the park amenities, as currently they are not allowed to. Vollmer motioned to allow non-resident boated to use park amenities. The motion was seconded by Kopf and approved. Cipriano heard talk of misuse of park passes by non-residents. Barrette stated that two passes were currently confiscated for misuse and Park Rangers have been instructed to be more diligent in checking passes upon entry to the park. The Changes to the Draft Park and Harbor Rules by the committee will go to council for review.
