Approval of Minutes

Approval of the draft minutes of the March 9, 2021 Harbor Committee regular meeting, motion by Ritter, seconded by D'Hondt; unanimously approved.

Harbor Master Report

Krolczyk reported well capacity is at 98 % and have taken in approximately $300,000 which is the most revenue in marina history. He will continue to try to rent the last two open wells. Krolczyk reported on the harbor decking replacement. DPW will attempt to replace one of the two remaining docks and determine who will replace the third. He also stated the concrete marina wall will be repaired under this year's budget at the cost of $28,000. City Manager Poloni was able to come up with the funds for the project.

Old Business - None

New Business – Harbor Update-

Committee Member Comments- Schroder asked the committee members to come up with new innovative ideas to rid the park of geese. He also asked Krolczyk to distribute to Harbor Committee members the information on the marina bond payments, the current roster of boats in the marina and that we should start to look at and update the harbor rules for changes.

Public Comment- None

Next Meeting Date

The next Harbor Committee meeting is scheduled for TBD

Adjournment

Motion by D'Hondt and seconded by Ritter, meeting adjourned at 7:23pm.
